

Factsheets

In order to inform data controllers and data subjects about personal data protection and security in the Principality, the APDP publishes factsheets and models on its website (for example, a display model for a video surveillance system), classified by category.

This section is regularly updated.