

Special procedures

Modification procedure The data controller must submit a new request whenever an element in the authorised processing changes. Deletion procedure The data controller is required to inform the CCIN of all deletions in the processing by letter to the attention of the President of the CCIN.