

[Provide the identity of the data controller]

The video surveillance system is implemented in order to [Provide the purposes of the processing. For example, to ensure the safety of property and people]

The images from this system are kept [Provide the retention period of the images. Maximum: 30 days]

In accordance with Law No. 1.565 of December 3, 2024 you have rights that allow you to control your personal data, in particular a right of access that can be exercised by contacting [Provide the name of the department with which the right of access is exercised] [Provide the instructions to exercise the right of access. For example, by telephone, on site].

For more information: [Add a link to additional information]

[Add the contact details of the Data Protection Officer if one is appointed]